Due Date: September 5th 2017 (Commercial) September 7th (Journal)

I. Read: Girls Like Us: Fighting for a World Where Girls Are Not Safe- A Memoir by Rachel Lloyd

The Level IV Humanities curriculum focuses on modern contemporary global studies. It is your job this year to look in depth at the world around you. As you know, we originally received a grant covering Human Trafficking, so we will continue with this topic starting in the fall. The novel you will read (Girls Like Us), is a unique perspective of a girl who was trafficked in the United States.

Directions: After/as you read, select 4 sections/chapters of the novel to write a personal response about the events and how they affected you. Make sure to include specifics along with your own thoughts and feelings. Each entry should be titled (ex: Pimps) and should be ½ to 1 page long. This is a Major Assessment. Due Thursday, September 7th.

II. Directions: You are to create a Commercial about Human Trafficking. You will need to use technology to create this Commercial. You will need to conduct sufficient research on the issue (at least THREE reliable sources). Your research will be turned in at the same time as the commercial. The commercial needs to be creative, thought provoking, and clearly connect to a specific issue of human trafficking. It will need to include words, symbols, and pictures. Also include sound- you speaking or music. The notes and commercial together will be counted as a Major Assessment. Turn in this rubric with the assignment on September 5th. Commercial can be on flash drive or CD to turn in.

(Please adhere to the commercial time limits also- most commercials are no longer than 120 seconds).

Research Notes:

- You will need to type your notes and have them printed when you turn them in (if possible).
- Notes need to be IN YOUR OWN WORDS, not copy pasted from a website.
- Notes should be organized –identify which facts came from which source
- You will need a WORKS CITED (MLA format) at the end.

Commercial Rubric- Total: _____/100

_____/20 Original Thought/Thought Provoking

_____/20 Connection to the Issue/Informative

_____/20 Creativity

_____/20 Appropriate use of Technology/Time limit

- Sound is appropriately included (audio flows smoothly)
- Pictures, words, symbols enhance the presentation

_____/20 Research Notes: Proper format, correct number of sources, sufficient information, Works Cited

NOTE: Please be thinking about your Senior Project for the fall.

Topics include: Identity, Influence, Concern, and Contribution. Project proposals will start MP1- details to follow. ☺
